Leghorn, May 4. We are informed by the Master of a Vessel that arrived here a few Days ago from Bastia, that the Affairs of Corsica continue in the utmost Confusion; and that the Malecontents have appropriated to themselves the Rents of several Estates belonging to the Genoese in that Island.

Frankfort, May 13. Last Week upwards of 800 Horses were led through this City for the Use of the Regiments garrisoned in Alsace and the three Bishopricks. We are informed by Letters received last Post from Schaffhausen, that on the 3d Instant, about Six in the Evening, the fine Stone Bridge, built over the Rhine at that City, fell down suddenly. They write from Metz, that Provisions in general are become so excessive dear, that Numbers of the poor Inhabitants of that City must have perished for Want, had they not been daily relieved by the Bishop.

WHEREAS the Time draws near for holding the Fair in this County, called Welsh Fair, for the selling horned Cattle, which said Fair used to be held at Islington, but lately has been held at Barnet: And whereas we have Cause to believe the said Infestation, which, during the Summer Time, in this County has greatly decreased, has for some Years, by Reason of this Fair, broke out again, and raged very much during the Months of September, October, and November; Therefore, in order to prevent such Spreading of the said Distemper, and in Pursuance of the Powers and Authorities given, as well by his Majesty's Orders in Council, as by the several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made; We do order and direct, That no Fair or Market, or other publick Place of Sale, be held or kept within this County, for the Sale of horned Cattle, (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) from the Fifteenth Day of August next, to the Tenth Day of October following: And that no Person or Persons shall or do presume to drive, send, or remove, or cause to be driven, sent, or removed, any horned Cattle (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) to any Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale in this County, within the Time before-mentioned, under the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, mentioned, sett, or imposed, by His Majesty's said Orders in Council, or the said Acts of Parliaments, or any of them, in that Case made.
